Numb. 1478

SATURDAY, MARCH 15. 1740.

No. 1476.

To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

GIVE me Leave to beg your Assistance to convey the following Epistle to your old Friend.

Several Mr. D'Anvers, Bath, March 6, 1739.

Tu quoque Littoribus nostris, Æncia nutrix,
Æternum moriens nomen, Caieta dedisti:

THIS, you know, informs us, by what Accident a Port* in Italy gain'd an Eternal Name; and many other Examples are there in History of the same Nature, not only as to Places, but also as to Persons, from a single Action, from a Speech in Publick, or from some remarkable Perform-; as not many Years since amongst us one Wri- acquir'd the Name of Mouse-Montague, another of Julian-Johnson, and the like: And of this Kind you yourself are now become an Instance. nious are thy Labours, Caleb, but it is by the eral Paper † of the last Saturday but one, that Name shall be fix'd to Futurity: A TINKER art, and A TINKER shalt thou be, whilst thou ve: The Budget is on thy Back, and to thy Grave thou carry it: Thou hast nothing in the World to do but to turn out of Gray's Inn, march down ins with all thy Implements about thee, and add to beloved City's Cries, Old Constitutions: Have you any Constitutions to mend? So certain am I that this will thy Fate, that I have actually agreed with a pro- Operator, to draw thee in thy Peregrination: He finish'd the Design, and sent it me down hither, informs me that it will be engraved against the of the Whitechapel Club, of which your Friend Daily Gazetteer made mention some time since. , we imagine, will be about Five or Six Weeks ; for We who always live in the Country, ob- that Our Friends of that Society return with the low: About that Time thou mayst as certainly upon having thy Portraiture in thy proper ition, as if thou hadst it already strain'd, and 'd, and hung up in thy Study. In the mean e, Caleb, let me ask you one Question, How, in Name of Wonder, came you, all on a sudden, to such a Tenderness for the Legislature? You in your most excellent Paper, You think it very ient, and even Criminal, to brand the Whole Repre- tive Body of the People with such an opprobrious . By Representative Body you mean, if you mean thing, the Legislature; for it was not the Repre- tive Body of the People that enacted the Laws ch the Courtly Scribbler had taken Notice of, but Who'e Legislature: And this is the Reason why e the Liberty to ask, how it happens that you in- yourself for the Legislature? Did not the Whole slature pass the Riot Act, which you have so often ounc'd to be a Yoke of Slavery on the Necks of the ple? Have you not said the same of Armies, that of no longer Duration than Almanacks? for are not the Annual Creatures of the Legislature? ther, did not the King, Lords, and Commons ap- of the Convention, and yet, honest Caleb, how you and your Friends treated that same Conven- And to conclude, have not you and your De- gues told the People a thousand times, that may be a Parliamentary Slavery as well as a Mo- chical Slavery? How are these things consistent any Respect for the Legislature? What you, Man as you are, mean, is this: Parliaments are enough to be applauded, when they pass any that you think answers your Purpose, but at all times the whole Kingdom is to be animated them. You think such and such Laws very ones; I think them very weak ones: I have a good Opinion of other Laws which you detest. any Reason be given why I shall not speak with such Freedom of what I dislike, as you do of you dislike? Then again as to the Representa- Body of the People, how have some of that Body created by you and your Associates? Have we not had particular Marks propos'd for some of them to be known by; as Jockeys Horses that are to be sold have a Knot of Ribband under their Ear! Have we not been told it would be proper to have particular Seats in the House for some of them, and the Name of the Place for which they serv'd written on the Wainscot, behind their Backs? Have not all these ingenious Conceits, and many more of the same Sort mightily tending to the Honour of the Representatives, been exceedingly applauded? And after all this Freedom with the Representatives, are you now to complain of any thing of this Kind? This would be pleasant indeed; for to end with you as classically as I began, Quis tulerit Gracchos, &c.?

I am, &c.

* Gaeta is its modern Name. † Feb. 23.

An Infallible REMEDY

For BROKEN-WINDED HORSES,

WHich has been publiſhed and ſold many Years before any Counterfeits in other Forms appeared; and highly commended from one Friend to another. The vaſt Quantities that have been ſold alſo verify its Efficacy and Virtues, for it moſt perfectly cures them, after all others Means have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a ſmall time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Paſſages obſtructed by Humours dripping thereon, occaſion'd by hard Riding, Colds, &c. cauſes preſently a free Perſpiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures thoſe Horſes only a little touch'd in their Wind, as alſo all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheezings, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Diſtempers incident unto them, by maintaining, preſerving, and continuing a good Breath.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horſes have been made ſo perfectly ſound, that they have been ſold and valued from 10 to 30 or 40 Pounds, which by being Broken-winded, could not before be ſold for 3 or 4 Pounds.

It is ſold at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-Shop at the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d the Quart Bottle, with Directions for taking it; and no where elſe in England.
